Equality and Diversity

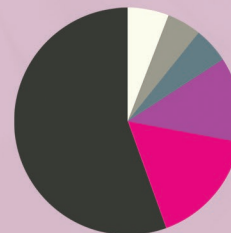

We pride ourselves on providing a supportive working environment where all our colleagues have the opportunity to succeed.

Our equality and diversity policies ensure that all our people (clients, colleagues, candidates and partners) receive the same fair and consistent treatment. We do not tolerate discrimination of any kind.

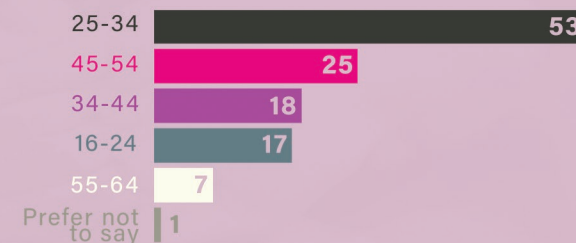

We conduct reviews of our diversity data and report this to the SRA when directed to do so, typically once every two years. The data below was submitted to the SRA in July 2019 and is based on positive responses only, where a person didn't respond they are not included in any results displayed.
